

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez (CA-47), a member of the Congressional Labor and Working Families Caucus, today issued the following statement in honor of Labor Day, which will be celebrated on September 6:

“On Labor Day, we celebrate the important contributions of American workers and our nation’s commitment to helping all families achieve the American Dream. Unfortunately, far too many people are still struggling as a result of the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression. The strength and prosperity of this country is directly tied to the well-being of our workforce, which is why it is so important to support all workers, including those who are unemployed.

“In Congress, I will continue to fight for policies that will create new jobs and new opportunities in Orange County. Our economy may still be struggling, but our workers can and will be the ones to get it back on track. Rest assured, we will emerge from these tough economic times stronger than before.”
